

*Brig. Gen. George Crook seated at his roll-top desk talking with an unknown man.
The photo was taken about 1871. U.S. Army Signal Corps photo SC 82458. @1871.00.00.001*

The 1st Infantry in formation at Huachuca in 1884. @1884.00.00.009

Fourth Cavalry baseball team at Fort Huachuca in 1884. It was the first uniformed baseball team in Arizona. The first baseman, Sgt. Emil P. Pauly is standing on the left. @1884.00.00.014

Noncommissioned officers of the 13th Infantry. National Archives Photo. @1885.00.00.013

General Crook aboard his mule, White Mountain scout Alchesay on the right, and an unknown Apache scout on the left. Taken in Apache Pass near Fort Bowie. U.S. Army photo. @1885.00.00.017

Dr. Leonard Wood at Huachuca, 1886, on his mule "Shafter."

Officers and their families. Lieutenant Hanna is in the lower right corner with his hand on the dog. @1886.00.00.069

Troopers of the 14th Cavalry at Huachuca in 1904. @1890.13.00.018

Sergeant George Berry of the 10th Cavalry who planted the colors of the 3rd and 10th Cavalries on San Juan Hill, Cuba, 1 July 1898. @1890.15.00.077

1st Lieut. B.W. Leavell with his family "By the Bridge." @1892.00.00.021

A family portrait of Capt. Benjamin W. Leavell, 24th Infantry, and his family at Huachuca between 1892 and 96. After fighting with his regiment in Cuba, he was retired for a disability and served as Adjutant General, National Guard of Arizona, until his death in 1907 at Tempe, AZ. @1894.00.00.003

Group of officers at Huachuca in 1894. Standing: Lt. Bean, Lt. J. Hornbrook. Seated: Lt. A. M. Fuller, Col. Noyes, and Capt. Allison. Photo courtesy the estate of Col. Alvarado M. Fuller. @1894.00.00.004

1896

Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood and Brig. Gen. S. M. Whitside seated. @1900.00.00.002

San Francisco 1900 - En route to Philippines

Troop E, 9th Cavalry, in San Francisco in 1900 before departing for the Philippines.

@1900.00.00.005

NCOs of the 10th Cavalry around 1902 (The Squadron Sergeant Major, top row, left, still wears the chevrons authorized from 1899-1902 while the rest of the men wear the chevrons in use from 1902-1916) The regiment was then at Fort Robinson, Nebraska. Seated from left to right: Regimental Quartermaster Sergeant B. A. Anderson, Sergeant Major Presley Holliday, Commissary Sergeant William H. Hill. Standing from left to right: Squadron Sergeant Major Paschall Conley, Color Sergeant Adam Houston, Color Sergeant J. C. Pendergrass, Squadron Sergeant Major E. P. Frierson. Q.M. Sergeant Anderson won a bronze medal in the 1903 Department (Missouri and Texas) Cavalry competition. Adma Houston, as 1st Sgt. of Troop C, 10th Cavalry, was recommended for a Medal of Honor for his gallantry in the Battle of Santiago, July 1, 2, and 3, 1898. Frierson retired but returned to the Army in 1917 to receive an officer's commission and train black troops for the newly organized 93d Infantry Division. #M1900.15.00.001

Troops of the 6th Cavalry stand at attention outside their barracks (bldg. no. 22214) between 1908 and 1912. @1900.15.00.041

Children of Andrew D. Orr, Post Blacksmith, 1900-1930, and Frank Haug, Teamster, in front of the Civilian Employees Quarters (No. 37). Photo courtesy Alfred L. Orr.

@1909.00.00.002

Men of the 9th Cavalry wearing Masonic gear. @1910.13.00.003

Soldiers of Troop B, 5th Cavalry, in front of barracks at Huachuca in 1913.

@1910.15.00.037

Trumpeters from the 5th and 10th Cavalry at Huachuca around 1913. Photo courtesy George Maker, on the far left. @1910.15.00.075

Officers in front of the Bachelor Officers' Quarters (BOQ) at Fort Huachuca in the Spring of 1914. Left to right: Dr. Oscar G. Skelton, Dental Surgeon, 1st Lt. Mike O'Donnel, 10th Cavalry; 2d Lt. Duncan Grant Richart, 10th Cavalry; 2d Lt. Henry Abby, 10th Cavalry; in the doorway reaching for his gun is Dr. Charles D. McMundo, Capt. Veterinary Corps, about 26 years in the 10th Cavalry. Photo courtesy Maj. Gen. John B. Brooks, USAF Retired, who was stationed at Fort Huachuca as a 2d Lt. with the 10th Cavalry from 1913 to 1915. @1914.00.00.003

National Guard troops at Huachuca in 1916, replacing the 10th Cavalry which was in the field in Mexico. @1916.00.00.133

*Four unidentified members of the 35th Infantry Regiment at Nogales, Arizona in 1917.
Photo courtesy John A. Carr, a veteran of the Machine Gun Company, 35th Infantry, at Nogales. @1917.00.00.077*

Officers of the 10th Cavalry in 1917. Front row, left to right: Lt. Col. George B. Rodney, Commanding Officer, 10th Cavalry, 1917-18; Von Kessler (Medical); Heard; Maj. William Like Luhn; Bingham; Caldwell; Bell (Medical). Rear row, left to right: 2d Lt. Leo Lawrence Gocker; Massey; Tighe; Capt. Renshaw (Medical); Capt. Atwell, Dayhuff; Forsyth; Strawn. Photo courtesy Col. Leo L. Gocker, USA Retired. @1917.00.00.09B

Captain John C.F. Tillson, 10th Cavalry, Fort Apache, Arizona, in 1918. The quarters of 1st Lt. H.B. Wharfield, 10th Cavalry, is at the right. Photo courtesy Col H.B. Wharfield.

@1918.00.00.018

10th Cavalry officers in front of the headquarters building in 1918. @1918.00.00.023

From the Markel Collection. @1918.00.00.140

Lochiel Ariz - March 1918

Capt. John H. Healy, 10th Cavalry, at Lochiel, Arizona, in 1918. @1918.03.00.001

10th Cavalry staff around 1918. Photo courtesy Maj. Gen. David S. Parker.
@1918.13.00.004

First Sergeant Chicken, Jesse Palmer, Tea Square, Sgt. Big Chow, and Corporal C.F. Josh, in front of the adjutant's office at Fort Apache in 1919. Photo courtesy Lt. H. B. Wharfield, 10th Cavalry, commanding Indian Scouts in 1918-19. @1919.00.00.010

10th Cavalry troopers at Huachuca pose for friends back home. @1920.14.00.001

*Members of the 10th Cavalry pose for the camera. At the left is Private Tom Prowl.
@1920.15.00.045*

*Capt. Paul Matte with his mount, about 1928. Photo courtesy Col. Paul Matte, Jr., USA
Retired. @1920.15.00.051*

"Troop I, 10th Cavalry Baseball Team, Reginald Champions, 1921." Poster being held up in the background shows that the "Buffalo Cubs" had a record of 24 wins and 1 loss.

The "Officials" are listed as Col. E. B. Winans, commanding the 10th, Capt. F. H. L. Ryder, 1st Lt. D. H. Nelson, and another that cannot be made out. The "Players" are listed as: "Finley--Mgr.; Robinson, C.; Towner--CF; Gordon--3rd B.; Ahen--S.S. & P.; Sharp--R.F.; Reese--1st B.; Strylous [?]-2nd B. and Captain; Lumpkin--L.F.; Moore--L.F.; Hudson-C.; Cooke--P.; Crutcher--P.; Franklin--P." Photo courtesy F.H.L. Ryder Collection. @1921.16.00.001

"Firestone-Garlick-Countess-Lupie-Jimmie-Gailey-Marie Camou-Fannie- -Carmen"
Photo courtesy F.H.L. Ryder Collection. @1922.16.00.003

The first known Fort Huachuca 8th grade graduating class. Left to right: Alfred Orr, Hazel Jetmare, William Orr, Mrs. Fritz, teacher, and Art Jetmare. Mr. Jetmare was the post carpenter. Photo courtesy Alfred L. Orr, son of Andrew D. Orr, blacksmith at Huachuca. @1923.00.00.001

Company E, 25th Infantry, Stephen D. Little, Nogales, Arizona, in 1924. @1924.14.00.001

The polo team at Fort Huachuca in 1922. @1925.00.00.005

Marksmanship team of 25th Infantry at Camp Stephen D. Little, Nogales, Arizona, in 1928.

@1928.14.00.001

*Co. M, 25TH
Fort Huachuca
-1928-*

Troop A
10th Cavalry
Huachuca
1928

Headquarters Detachment, 2d Battalion, 25th Infantry. @1930.15.00.022

Apache Scout Kessay mounted on the parade field, in the early 1940s. @1930.15.00.064

Troop F, 10th Cavalry, in front of their barracks at Huachuca in 1931. @1931.09.00.001

Children of Indian Scouts at Fort Huachuca in 1934. Photo courtesy Mrs. Robert S. Knox, widow of Colonel Knox who, in 1933, was post commander of Fort Huachuca and the 25th Infantry. @1934.00.00.024

Indian Scouts and their families at Fort Huachuca in 1934. @1934.00.00.027

Apache Scouts at Huachuca in 1934. They are from left to right: Ivan, Antonio, Joe Quintero, Jess Billy, Hugh Bond, Jim Lane and William Major. They were identified in 1996 by Mary Kessay. @1934.00.00.038

Colonel John F. Franklin, commanding 25th Infantry, poses in front of the officers club in 1935 with visiting John J. Pershing. @1936.00.00.002

The 25th Infantry staff at Huachuca in August 1937. Col. W. F. Robinson, Jr., commanding, is seated in the middle. Seated second from the left is Lt. Col. Louis A. Carter, 25th Infantry Regiment chaplain. @1937.08.00.004

10th Cavalry troopers with their mounts, "Tricky" and "Gray." @1939.00.00.006

Col. Hardy riding on the upper parade field in the 1940s. @1940.13.00.028

Col. James R. Urquhart and his staff lead the 368th Infantry in a review, probably in the Spring of 1943. Photo courtesy Mr. James Robinson. @1940.15.00.087

A mess hall scene showing the WACs of the 32d and 33d WAAC Companies enjoying a meal at Fort Huachuca on 9 December 1942. @1942.00.00.029

Colonel Nordin
from Sgt.
Joe Smith

Singer and actress Lena Horne poses with the baseball team of the 1922 Service Command Unit in 1943. U.S. Army photo. @1943.08.21.001.

Posing after an awards ceremony are, left to right: Col. Edwin N. Hardy, 1st Sgt. Samuel M. Baker, who received the Legion of Merit, Mrs. Lula Sprinkle, Tucson, who accepted a posthumous award for her son, Lieutenant John Sprinkle, and Maj. Gen. David McCoach, Jr. @1943.10.30.001

*Gen. George C. Marshall inspects a mess hall of the 92d Division at Huachuca in 1944.
@1944.00.00.037*

Sgt. Sinew Riley with his family. It was reported that Riley was the father of 17 children and named his last son Big Shot because he was born in a hospital. @1945.00.00.012

*WAC Det, 1st Lt. Geraldine Paul, Commanding Officer, at Fort Huachuca in May 1952.
U.S. Army photo. @1952.05.17.001*

Brig. Gen. Nelson, front row center, and his staff at Huachuca in about 1958.

@1955.15.00.001

The staff of the 1958 Armed Forces Day Committee. U.S. Army photo. @1958.05.14.001

Brig. Gen. F. W. Moorman inspects the WAC detachment at Huachuca in July 1959.

@1959.07.11.001

Apache relatives of Staff Sergeant Sinew L. Riley at the dedication of the new barracks and headquarters for the U.S. Army Intelligence Center and School in 1974. U.S. Army photo.

@1974.01.25.012

Lieut. Col. George Alexander Forsyth, (1837-1915)

Thomas Jonathan Jeffords

First Sergeant Vance Hunter Marchbanks

