2. POLICY: Responsible environmental stewardship is an integral part of accomplishing the missions at Fort Huachuca. To ensure our continuing ability to accomplish our missions, every leader, Soldier, Family member, and Civilian employee working or living on Fort Huachuca must do everything possible to prevent pollution, conserve natural resources, and comply with all relevant laws, regulations, and policies.

3. PROCEDURES: We will all actively seek continuous improvement opportunities in our conservation and environmental programs. Commanders at all levels will ensure environmental requirements are integrated into mission and training, planning and execution, as well as work practices and family life. Commanders will ensure environmental awareness and compliance are integral to all operations, not afterthoughts.
